Graduate Application
Conviction Disclosure Form

Applicants to graduate programs in the College of Education are required to provide information about all convictions, civil infractions, and ordinance violations. An applicant to a graduate program who has been convicted of a misdemeanor or felony may be denied admission.

If a student is convicted of a crime during his or her graduate program and it is the decision of the student's department to dismiss, the student may appeal the decision to a College-level Hearing Board.

Name:

PID:

Have you ever been convicted of a misdemeanor or felony or admitted responsibility for civil infraction or ordinance violation?

Yes: No:

If you answered Yes please answer the following questions for each conviction, infraction, or violation (please attach a separate sheet if necessary).

What was the offense?

Please explain the circumstances below.

What was the date of the conviction or admission of responsibility?

In what city, state/province, and country did the offense occur?

In what court were you convicted or did you admit responsibility?

Please provide any other information that you consider important relative to this offense.

I certify that the answers provided are complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. Falsification, misrepresentation, or omission of information may result in denial of admission or subsequent removal from a graduate program in the College of Education.
