

Michigan State University College of Education

Request to Participate in the College of Education Doctoral and Educational Specialist Convocation Ceremony (Ph.D., Ed.D and Ed.S. Degrees)

Each fall and spring semester, the College of Education hosts a Doctoral and Educational Specialist Convocation (hooding ceremony) to celebrate candidates who have completed their programs of study. We look forward to celebrating your commencement with you whenever that occurs. To be eligible to participate in May 2018:

- Ed.S. and Ed.D. candidates must complete all program requirements before June 30, 2018, and
- This form, signed by the candidate's guidance committee chairperson or academic advisor, must be submitted to the College of Education Graduate Records Office (204 EH or edacadaf@msu.edu) no later than one month before the date of the ceremony (05/04/18). For Spring Semester 2018, the form is due at 5:00 PM on Wednesday, April 4, 2018. There will be no exceptions to this deadline.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION DOCTORAL CONVOCATION POLICY: Effective January 1, 2016, students who complete all program requirements between January 1 and June 30 are eligible to participate in the spring ceremony, and those who complete all requirements between July 1 and December 31 are eligible to participate in the fall ceremony. Candidates do not have the option to participate in a semester other than the one for which they qualify according to this policy, with the exception of School Psychology Ph.D. students who defend their dissertations in late fall and then complete internships in the spring.

Please complete and submit this form if you wish to participate in the Spring 2018 College of Education Doctoral and Educational Specialist Convocation on Friday, May 4, 2018. The completed form is due before 5:00 PM on Wednesday, April 4, 2018. Candidates approved to participate by the Graduate Records Office will receive additional information about the ceremony after April 4, 2018.
