

Michigan State University College of Education
Request to Participate in the College of Education Doctoral Convocation Ceremony (Ph.D. Degree)

Each fall and spring semester, the College of Education hosts a Doctoral Convocation (hooding ceremony) for candidates who have completed their programs of study. We look forward to celebrating your commencement with you whenever that occurs. To be eligible to participate in May 2018:

- Ph.D. candidates must have defended their dissertation, or have a dissertation defense scheduled no later than June 30, 2018, and
- This form, signed by the candidate's dissertation director, must be submitted to the College of Education Graduate Records Office (204 EH or edacadaf@msu.edu) no later than one month before the date of the ceremony (5/4/18). For Spring Semester 2018, the form is due at 5:00 PM on Wednesday, April 4, 2018. There will be no exceptions to this deadline.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION DOCTORAL CONVOCATION POLICY: Effective January 1, 2016, students who defend their dissertations between January 1 and June 30 are eligible to participate in the spring ceremony, and students who defend their dissertations between July 1 and December 31 are eligible to participate in the fall ceremony. Candidates do not have the option to participate in a semester other than the one for which they qualify according to this policy, with the exception of School Psychology Ph.D. students who defend their dissertations in late fall and then complete internships in the spring.

Please complete and submit this form if you wish to participate in the Spring 2018 College of Education Doctoral Convocation on Friday, May 4, 2018. The completed form is due before 5:00 PM on Wednesday, April 4, 2018.
