Program Overview:

The Higher, Adult, and Lifelong Education (HALE) MA program is a professional development degree that can be completed fully on-line or as a hybrid program which offers the option of taking several on-campus courses. Ideally suited for individuals with at least several years of work experience in a postsecondary setting, students come from many sectors of higher and adult education, business, industry, social services, and other professional domains.

The curriculum structure enables students to tailor their course selection to their interests in the fields of higher, adult, and lifelong education while also developing an understanding of postsecondary education from social, historical, philosophical, developmental, and international perspectives.

Course offerings contribute to understanding central issues in Organization and Leadership; Teaching and Learning; Policy; and Contexts of Higher, Adult, and Lifelong Education as they reflect the relationship between theory and practice. We expect that graduates will be prepared for a variety of roles in postsecondary education and for cultivation of inclusive educational environments.

Admissions Criteria:

The admissions committee considers the following criteria for recommending admission to the HALE MA program:

- An undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher (students with a GPA lower than 3.0 may be admitted provisionally)
- References that showcase your academic ability and commitment to the field of higher, adult, or lifelong education
- Personal statement that addresses the following questions:
 1. What experiences led to your interest in pursuing the HALE MA program?
 2. What qualities, characteristics, and skills do you possess that will make you a strong candidate for the HALE MA program?
 3. How will the HALE MA program at Michigan State University help you meet your personal and professional goals?
- Professional or paraprofessional experience
