Program Overview:
The Higher, Adult, and Lifelong Education (HALE) MA program is a professional development degree that provides a broad understanding of postsecondary education from social, historical, philosophical, developmental, and international perspectives. It also develops understanding of central issues in Organization and Leadership; Teaching and Learning; and Contexts of Higher, Adult, and Lifelong Education as they reflect the relationship between theory and practice. We expect that graduates will be prepared for a variety of roles in postsecondary education and for cultivation of inclusive educational environments.

The HALE MA program seeks to strengthen postsecondary educational opportunities by preparing individuals who foster organizational development and change within an increasingly complex and global society; who nurture within individuals, groups, organizations and society skill in and commitment to lifelong learning; and who honor diversity and difference among people, groups, and societies.

Students in the HALE MA program are able to choose between two delivery methods for the curriculum/course work. The first is the traditional method, which requires students to take some classes on the MSU campus, as well as online course options; the second method is fully online with all classes offered electronically. The traditional method includes a residency requirement in which six credits (typically 2 courses) must be completed on the MSU campus. Each delivery method has its own program code.

Admissions Criteria:
The admissions committee considers the following criteria for admission to the HALE MA program:
- An undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher (students with a GPA lower than 3.0 may be admitted provisionally)
- References that showcase your academic ability and commitment to the field of higher, adult, or lifelong education
- Personal statement that addresses the following questions:
  1. What experiences led to your interest in pursuing the HALE MA program?
  2. What qualities, characteristics, and skills do you possess that will make you a strong candidate for the HALE MA program?
  3. How will the HALE MA program at Michigan State University help you meet your personal and professional goals?
- Professional or paraprofessional experience
- Admission into the Graduate School
