The Higher, Adult, and Lifelong Education Program at Michigan State University is pleased to present

“Spiritual Questions and the College Experience: Is There Room for Higher Learning?”

Dr. C. Carney Strange

Professor of Higher Education and Student Affairs at Bowling Green State University

Date: Tuesday, April 14
Location: 103 Kellogg Center
Time: 1:00 p.m.
Reception to Follow

Carney Strange is Professor of Higher Education and Student Affairs at Bowling Green State University (OH) where he has served as a graduate faculty member since 1978. With a Ph.D. in Higher Education and Student Development from the University of Iowa, he teaches courses in student development, the design and impact of educational environments, dimensions of student spirituality, and methods of qualitative research. Co-author of Educating by Design, he has published widely and edits for several professional journals.

A past ACPA Senior Scholar and current NASPA Faculty Fellow, Strange has been selected respectively as a Diamond Honoree (1999) and a Pillar of the Profession (2006) for each organization. He also serves on the Board of Trustees of Saint Xavier University (IL).

The Raines Colloquium honors the significant contributions of Emeritus Professor Max Raines to the department, the college, the university, and the field of student affairs in higher education. A national leader in the field, Dr. Raines was also a critical figure in creating a strong academic and professional foundation for MSU’s nationally recognized programs in student affairs, adult education, and higher education.