Program Information

MSU Department of Kinesiology

There are two core undergraduate programs in the Department of Kinesiology: Athletic Training and Kinesiology. Athletic Training will transition from a bachelor's to a master's level program in summer 2020. Starting fall semester 2018, students entering MSU as an undergraduate will no longer be able to choose Athletic Training as their major program.

Kinesiology majors choose a cognate in:

- Athletic Administration
- Athletic Injury and Therapy
- Cognitive and Motor Neuroscience
- Exercise Physiology
- Psycho-Social Aspects of Physical Activity

And/or a minor in:

- Health Promotion
- Coaching

100% of Kinesiology and Athletic Training
students graduate from MSU with internship experience.

Data Collection & Placement Information

An electronic version of the Destination Survey was sent to 332 spring and summer 2019 Kinesiology and Athletic Training graduates. By December 2019, 269 graduates had responded resulting in an 81% knowledge rate. All results of this survey are based on the responses to individual questions asked. Not all respondents answered every question.

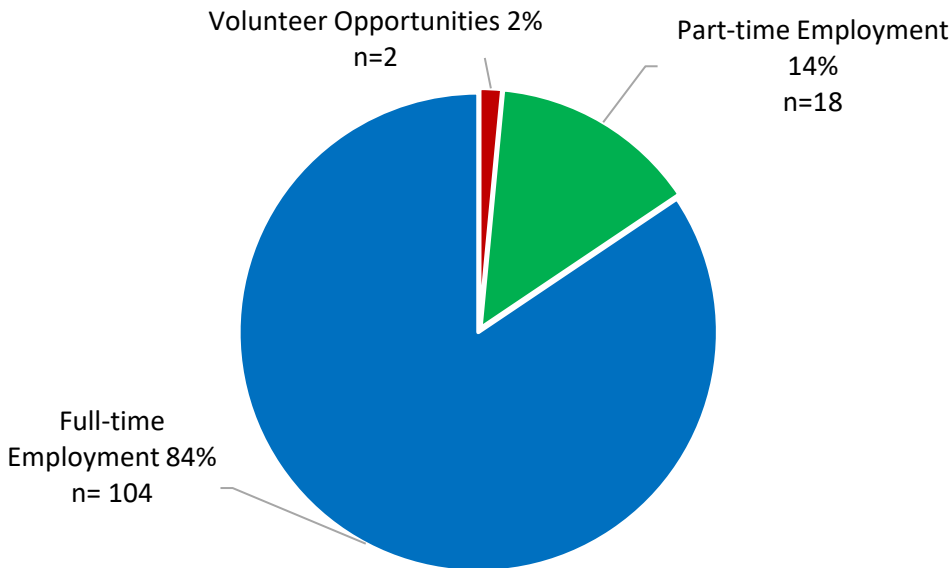

This report is part of a larger campus-wide Destination Survey Report that can be found at <http://www.careernetwork.msu.edu>.
